

House Resolution 1177 (AS PASSED HOUSE AND SENATE)

By: Representatives Williams of the 113th and Channell of the 116th

A RESOLUTION

1 Dedicating certain portions of the state highway system; and for other purposes.

2 PART I

3 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 4 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 5 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and

6 WHEREAS, United States military veterans have demonstrated a deep personal commitment 7 to protecting democracy and a willingness to sacrifice their own personal safety and comfort 8 to ensure the well-being of their fellow man; and

9 WHEREAS, they have served as guardians of this nation's freedom and liberty and have 10 diligently and conscientiously undergone intensive and rigorous training in order to serve 11 their country with honor and distinction during times of war and peace; and 12 WHEREAS, it is important that veterans are thanked for their selfless service to this nation 13 and honored for their unyielding commitment to protecting the people and ideals of the 14 United States; and 15 WHEREAS, veterans embody the spirit of service, willing to find meaning in something 16 greater than themselves, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that the outstanding 17 accomplishments and sacrifices of these remarkable and distinguished Americans be honored 18 appropriately.

19 PART II

20 WHEREAS, Herman E. Black was highly regarded by the citizens of the City of Gray and 21 by local government officials as a person of substance; and

22 WHEREAS, he was the son of William and Maggie Black, both pillars of the community; 23 and

24 WHEREAS, he spent 76 years of his life as a citizen of Jones County; and 25 WHEREAS, he was the father of four children, a husband, and a friend; and 26 WHEREAS, he gave a lifetime of service and commitment to his community by serving on 27 the Jones County Board of Equalization, was a founding member of the Jones County Men's 28 Club, and was a member of the Optimist Club; and 29 WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper to dedicate State Route 22 in the City of Gray from the 30 eastern city limit to its intersection with State Route 11 as the Herman E. Black Memorial 31 Highway as an appropriate tribute to this outstanding Georgian.

32 PART III

33 WHEREAS, Sgt. Carlton "Dan" Jenkins was shot and killed after making a traffic stop of a 34 robbery suspect on I-95 shortly after midnight on August 28, 2000; and

35 WHEREAS, Sgt. Jenkins had been with the Camden County Sheriff's Department for 7 36 years, and had been in law enforcement for 11 years; and

37 WHEREAS, the Camden County Sheriff's Department named him Officer of the Year in 38 1999; and

39 WHEREAS, in August of 2010, the 28th of August was declared to be Sergeant Carlton 40 Daniel Jenkins Day in Camden County; and 41 WHEREAS, he is survived by his wife and five children; and

42 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that a permanent memorial to this outstanding 43 officer's life and service be established by dedicating an interchange on I-95 in his honor.

44 PART IV

Senate Resolution 843

By: Senator Mullis of the 53rd

ADOPTED

1 Dedicating certain portions of the state highway system; repealing certain resolutions; 2 repealing conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

4 WHEREAS, Mr. Bert Ward was born on May 30, 1922, in Catoosa County, Georgia, was 5 educated in the Catoosa County public school system, and graduated from Ringgold High 6 School; and

7 WHEREAS, Mr. Ward served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the 8 United States Navy, valiantly and courageously protecting his fellow Americans during 9 World War II on the USS Gillis and the USS Williamson in the Pacific; and 10 WHEREAS, he sustained injuries during his service when his ship was torpedoed by 11 Japanese submarines in the North Pacific; and 12 WHEREAS, upon returning home after the war, Mr. Ward continued his public service as 13 Catoosa County Tax Commissioner, diligently and conscientiously devoting innumerable 14 hours of his time, talents, and energy toward the betterment of his community and state for 15 19 years; and

16 WHEREAS, he was elected to represent Catoosa County as a State Representative in the 17 Georgia General Assembly in 1967 and 1968; and 18 WHEREAS, Mr. Ward served as a judge in Catoosa County for several years before he was 19 elected to serve on the Board of Commissioners of Catoosa County; and 20 WHEREAS, as a member of the Board of Commissioners, Mr. Ward was instrumental in 21 establishing procedures, policies, and rules and regulations of the board and helped in the 22 establishment of the county's 911 emergency response system and the naming of the Catoosa 23 Parkway; and

24 WHEREAS, Mr. Ward's significant organizational and leadership talents, his remarkable 25 patience and diplomacy, his keen sense of vision, and his sensitivity to the needs of the 26 citizens of this state earned him the respect and admiration of his colleagues and associates; 27 and

28 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the outstanding accomplishments and 29 service of this remarkable and distinguished Georgian be appropriately recognized.

30 PART II

31 WHEREAS, the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., stands as one of the most prominent 32 Georgians of the 20th Century; and 33 WHEREAS, Rev. King attended public school in Georgia, graduating from high school at 34 the age of 15, and received his bachelor's degree in 1948 from Morehouse College; and

35 WHEREAS, after three years of theological study at Crozer Theological Seminary in 36 Pennsylvania, where he was elected president of the senior class, he was awarded a divinity 37 degree in 1951, and, with a fellowship won at Crozer, he enrolled in graduate studies at 38 Boston University, completing his residence for the doctorate in 1953 and receiving his 39 doctoral degree in 1955; and

40 WHEREAS, in 1957, he was elected president of the Southern Christian Leadership 41 Conference, and, in the 11 years between 1957 and 1968, he traveled over 6 million miles 42 and spoke over 2,500 times in support of civil rights and wrote five books as well as 43 numerous articles; and

44 WHEREAS, he led a massive protest in Birmingham, Alabama, that caught the attention of 45 the entire world, providing what he called a coalition of conscience and inspiring his "Letter 46 from a Birmingham Jail," a manifesto of the Civil Rights Movement in the United States; and 47 WHEREAS, he also planned and participated in numerous protests and demonstrations for 48 the cause of civil rights including the peaceful march on Washington, D.C., of 250,000 49 people to whom he delivered his famous "I Have a Dream" address at the Lincoln Memorial; 50 and

51 WHEREAS, he was awarded five honorary degrees; was named Man of the Year by Time 52 magazine in 1963; and, at the age of 35, was the youngest man to have been awarded the 53 Nobel Peace Prize; and

54 WHEREAS, through his tireless work on behalf of civil rights for all people, he became not 55 only the symbolic leader of African Americans in the United States but also a world figure 56 in the fight for justice for all; and 57 WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper to dedicate the entire length of Snapfinger Road in 58 DeKalb County from its intersection with Wesley Chapel Road to the Henry County line as 59 the Martin Luther King, Jr. Parkway as an appropriate tribute to this outstanding Georgian.

60 PART III

61 WHEREAS, Roy Parrish was born in Walker County, Georgia, on November 29, 1933, one 62 of four children born to Roy E. Parrish, Sr., and the former Annie May Autry; the Parrish 63 family and the Autry family were pioneers to Walker County and have made this county their 64 homes since the eighteenth century; and

65 WHEREAS, Mr. Parrish was educated in the City of Chickamauga School System and 66 graduated from Gordon Lee High School in 1953; he started to work for the Chickamauga 67 Telephone Company while still in high school, and he remained in their employ for 19 years, 68 the last several as general manager; and

69 WHEREAS, he also served two years on active duty with the United States Army in Korea;
70 and

71 WHEREAS, he was elected Sole Commissioner of Walker County in the Democratic 72 Primary of 1972 and took office January 1, 1973; he went on to serve six, four-year terms; 73 and

74 WHEREAS, some of his major accomplishments include building the first sanitary landfill 75 in 1973 and operating it for 23 years; building and paving the county roads; passing the first 76 Local Option Sales Tax Referendum in 1977 that rolled back county property tax and for the 77 first time offered property tax relief to the local community; building the civic center, 78 pavilion, and the 911 Center; building a tunnel from the courthouse to the jail for security; 79 and building and operating an animal shelter, 16 fire stations, and 126 bridges; and 80 WHEREAS, Mr. Parrish worked with Georgia Department of Transportation and the United 81 States Department of the Interior as well as the National Park Service and Congressman 82 Buddy Darden to get a better corridor through or around the Chickamauga Battlefield and 83 was largely responsible for getting the western route through Walker County established as 84 the relocated Highway 27 around the Chickamauga National Park; and

85 WHEREAS, he has been married to the former Cora Ann Kell, also a native of Walker 86 County, for more than 50 years, and they have two children, two grandchildren, and two 87 great-grandchildren; they live in the City of Chickamauga where they are active members 88 of the Elizabeth Lee United Methodist Church; and

89 WHEREAS, he retired, undefeated, from public office in 1996 and now enjoys the freedom 90 of retirement; he and Cora Ann spend time traveling, enjoying their family, gardening, and 91 working in their church where Roy has recruited many of his friends; and

92 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that a lasting tribute to this life of public service be 93 established.

94 PART IV

95 WHEREAS, Dr. Johnny M. Hunt has demonstrated his commitment to teaching the Gospel, 96 witnessing Christ through word and deed, and addressing the physical, psychological, 97 intellectual, and spiritual needs of others; and

101 Carolina; Falls Baptist Church in Wake Forest, North Carolina; and Lavonia Baptist Church 102 in Mooresboro, North Carolina; and

103 WHEREAS, Dr. Hunt was called by the Lord in 1986 to lead the congregation of First 104 Baptist Church of Woodstock as the church's senior pastor; and

105 WHEREAS, his vision and direction have helped First Baptist Church of Woodstock grow 106 in size and influence, uplifting the community like the light of Bethlehem and serving as a 107 spiritual leader and place for fellowship; and 108 WHEREAS, Dr. Hunt has served as president of the Southern Baptist Convention and 109 president of the Pastors' Conference of the Southern Baptist Convention; and 110 WHEREAS, whether the task is preparing a sermon, visiting the sick, counseling the 111 troubled, baptizing a new believer, or acting as a theologian, educator, administrator, or 112 humanitarian, Dr. Hunt serves as a shining example of God's righteous path; and 113 WHEREAS, the unmatched spiritual assistance offered by Dr. Hunt is a source of strength 114 and direction for persons in all walks of life and from all economic strata; and

115 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this enduring example of God's message 116 of peace and love be recognized.

117 PART V

118 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 119 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 120 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and

121 WHEREAS, Korean War veterans have demonstrated a deep personal commitment to 122 protecting democracy and a willingness to sacrifice their own personal safety and comfort 123 to ensure the well-being of their fellow man; and

124 WHEREAS, they served as guardians of this nation's freedom and liberty and diligently and 125 conscientiously underwent intensive and rigorous training in order to serve their country with 126 honor and distinction during a time of war; and

127 WHEREAS, it is important that Korean War veterans are thanked for their selfless service 128 to this nation and honored for their unyielding commitment to protecting the people and 129 ideals of the United States; and

130 WHEREAS, Korean War veterans embody the spirit of service, willing to find meaning in 131 something greater than themselves, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that the 132 outstanding accomplishments and sacrifices of these remarkable and distinguished 133 Americans be honored appropriately.
